SENIOR CLASS POEM

Alma Mater, as we sail
From out your shelt'ring port,
Thanks be to you for cargo rich
In wealth of every sort:

Depth of knowledge, breadth of heart,
Faith in all that's fine,
Memories of friends made here
About our heart entwined,

Courage for the days that test,
Joy in life lived true,
And always to the farthest port
We'll carry thoughts of you.

CLASS PROPHECY

IT WAS in the late afternoon I wandered along the banks of Otter Creek in search of the beautiful and picturesque. My rambles extended to Lake Dunmore, which lies embosomed among the hills a few miles to the east of that quiet stream. It was here my taste for natural scenery was amply gratified, for there is no spot in the whole range of the Green Mountains that contains more of the requisites for a perfect landscape than the romantic sheet of water and its surrounding shores. As I stood there, my mind drifted back to my old Alma Mater and my classmates. I wondered what they were doing. With these thoughts in my mind, I went back to my camp and there lay down to sleep. As I slept, I dreamed a dream. I thought I was in an old mansion in which an old woman lived who some one had told me had prophetic power and could tell me about my classmates. Then I saw the old woman approaching, waving a magic wand. Dame Fortune, said I, will you give me information concerning my classmates? And unhesitatingly, with one majestic wave of her wand, she brought into my presence a roll. I found it to be a special publication dedicated to the Senior Class of '28. This was the contents of it:

On the front was a picture of the parsonage of the largest church in Chattanooga. On its porch is seated James Love Patterson, our dear old class President. He is said to be the best minister of Holston Methodism. Beside him sits his wife (who was formerly Miss Eve Lee Johnson). "Pat," so interested in the cause of Christ, will surely lead many an unfortunate sailor into harbor before making the final port with flying sails.

A picture of an evangelistic singer sending forth notes of sweetest melody that stir the penitents to better living. Familiar; but why shouldn't it be, for it is John W. Hillman. Ah, he is a second Caruso surely!

This picture presents two familiar faces. O, yes, they are Mary E. Kidd and Irene Harrison walking along the streets of the mission field in India. They have a happy and beautiful expression on their faces, because they have been spreading Christianity to hungry hearts.

Miss Louise Hodge, the "sleeping beauty," is quite popular now. She has discovered the secret of eternal youth, and is running a beauty parlor in Miami, Fla., so that she may benefit suffering humanity. Our friend "Sleepy," Ola Lee Lowry (Miss Ola), is in partnership with her, and is taking advantage of the new cosmetics in order to win "Buck" again, little realizing that she must win him by love.

A laboratory—beautiful, costly, and well equipped, said to be the best in the world—has just been completed in St. Louis. It is owned by Lloyd Currin and Thomas Magill. They have made rapid strides in the scientific world. Their motto is, "Bring us the impossible." Therefore, they are trying to discover a remedy that will heal broken hearts and thus cure "Ikie."

Chief Justice Taft has resigned his position in the Supreme Court of the United States, and Floyd Farmer, who, having long since decided to quit his wit, occupies the seat of the Chief Justice. Among his associates sits Claude Stowers, better known to his classmates as "Country;" and he, having arose to this position, has ceased to rise at six o'clock and call the cows.

Among those who waved adieu to the great ocean liner, the Leviathan, that left for China a few days ago, was Earl Reynolds; for China has claimed him as a surgeon, and he is destined to do much good rescuing the Chinese from disease and death.

O, what a beautiful and magnificent hospital in New York! So wonderful is it that thousands come to it annually. It is owned by George Kennedy, and his motto is, "Kill or Cure." Most of his profits are going to the promotion of medical missions in China.

Ho, ho! No more of the contents of the little "brown jug" for me. It's a picture of the Hall of the Legislature, and there stands Corrine Evans, "Jolly," a stanch advocate for a nobler civilization and a bitter enemy to vice and crime. "Dill" is small in stature, but destined to do great things.

Ah, fair art gallery, who painted these beautiful pictures in the display window? Manuel Tobias appears in the limelight. He, having reformed his native country, Mexico, has retired with his fortune to devote his time to painting, and with the superior paints he has produced some wonderful paintings.

I see a picture of James Hughes as he appears on the campus of Princeton University. James will be awarded his Ph.D. in the near future; then he will be ready to carry his old motto, "I'll make my living with my brains."

Another picture shows a European ship just coming in view. Two figures are standing at the rail—

PRETTY FAWN

one a young lady, the other an old man. The lady is Nellie Hart, who, having fell heir to two million dollars, is spending her time traveling. When this picture was taken, she was having a delightful time talking to the old man, who is a Frenchman, so old that he speaks fluently the French language; but "Nell" is able to converse with him because of the French she learned at Hiwassee. By her mastery of the French she speaks every one on board the ship thinks she is a native-born French woman.

The new institution of learning, Wilson University, recently established by Thomas Loop, is making wonderful progress. As a member of the faculty, he has chosen his reliable classmates as follows: Everett Stanley, M.A., professor of "French and Jokology." Ruth Trundle, instructor of English. Lena Black, Domestic Science. It is said she is able to teach the students to seed blackberries at the rate of sixty per minute and to shell a humming bird's egg without breaking the yolk. Leonard White, M.S., professor of Biology. Leonard is still trying to discover why the physiological relationship of the stigma and anther of a flower prevents self-pollination. Jack Stout, Vocal instructor. He is now a graduate of the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music. He spends the summer months touring the country and displaying his vocal talent, thus entertaining large audiences.

It is the office building of the General Electric Company, and who occupies the president's chair but Oscar Whitaker, our dear old classmate and "fireman?" But he no longer shovels coal, for having received his M.A. and E.E., he heads this great company.

At the Southern Baptist Convention, which convened at Fort Worth, Texas, Marion ("Cowboy," "Texas") Wagley, one of their greatest representatives in the South, was elected chairman of the convention. Fight on, "Big Tex;" the cowboy spirit will put you there.

Mrs. N. D. Guerry, instructor of English at Hiwassee College, who has attended the Woman's Missionary Society meeting in St. Louis, will leave in a few days to join her husband, who is still professor of Religious Education there.

The central figure of the Holston Annual Conference, which met in Johnson City, Tenn., was William Blankenship, a promising young preacher of years ago. Bill was ordained bishop. But what a change in his appearance! He had pulled off his boots and had on a pair of trousers that actually covered his ankles. We doff our cap to you, Bill.

I saw the picture of a little two-room schoolhouse on the hill. Some one was standing in the door watching the children play. Who could it be but our good-natured Ora Lee Hicks, who is giving her life to the service of teaching?

I could hardly believe my eyes when I saw a large sign over the front door of a granite building in the city of Washington. The sign read, "Information." I stepped inside, and there sat behind a mahogany desk our dear classmate, Ralph Williams. He is informing mothers of America how to rear their children on "Pet" milk.

By this time I had finished reading the roll, and yet I did not know of one of my classmates. But when I asked the old woman where she secured this publication, I learned of my other classmate, for she said it was published by the Stevens Publishing Company, solely owned by Everett Stevens, your "too-long" classmate, who resolved while at Hiwassee to become a millionaire. He has far surpassed that mark; for, having made success in the printing business, he was able to purchase the Scripps-Howard Printing Firm. Let us drink to the success of the elongated "Ski!"

JUNIOR CLASS HISTORY

September the sixth found many reassembled on the college campus who had labored and trudged for the past four years toward success and fame. Those four years were crowded with responsibility, and the battle to conquer had been renewed. To our rank had been added boys and girls who had a determination to make good. During the time we have been at the "Grand Old Institution" it has been a fortress to our fears and an inspiration to our hopes and ambitions. The influence has molded and united a class, willing to dare and meet life without retreating.

On September 9 the mobilization order was given, and fifty-three recruits answered to the call of defending the colors of "Green and White." After a few minutes for reorganization, the officers were elected. Herschel B. Abshire, of Bluefield, W. Va., was selected to lead the class to victory. Realizing that no one person could accomplish such a task alone, the following assistants were elected: Sam Barnes, Vice President; Elizabeth Garner, Secretary-Treasurer; Wiley Kirk, Cheer Leader; Prince A. Eades, Reporter; and Prof. T. A. Frick, Sponsor.

The first event of importance was a picnic. Chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Frick, the class, with their invited guests, made a pilgrimage to "Craigg Head Lake." A very enjoyable time was reported by all. Many games were played, and then, after the eats and a good rest under the surrounding trees, the better part of the day was spent and the pilgrims retraced their steps to the school, tired but happy.

On Halloween night the class sponsored a very delightful social. The Administration Building was used for the occasion. The rooms, auditorium, and halls were decorated with cornstalks, jack-o'-lanterns, leaves, and white paper. Prizes were awarded for the best stunts put on by the different classes. Many games and stunts were played to make it one of the best social events of the school year.

The class play, "Married Within Thirty Days," was presented in the college auditorium on the evening of March 5. The characters were well suited to their parts, and, with the untiring efforts of our Sponsor, the play may be said to have been a big success. At any rate, it was well received by the student body and community.

Climaxing the activities of the year came the Junior-Senior Banquet, given in the college dining room Monday evening, March 19, at 7:30 o'clock. This affair will long be remembered by members of both classes, it being the largest class banquet in the history of the school. The dining room was beautifully decorated with the colors of the two classes, "Green and White" and "Blue and White." Placards, candles, and flowers were all in keeping with the color scheme and the class theme, "Keep Climbing." The program was very impressive and humorous, Prof. T. A. Frick, Sponsor, being toastmaster. President Reedy was a guest of honor, and made a very touching talk, which was enjoyed by all. Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Lowry, of Knoxville, Tenn., were present, and Dr. Lowry made an inspiring talk to both classes. The welcome was given by Herschel B. Abshire and answered by James Love Patterson, President of the Senior Class. The Senior Class Sponsor, Coach Miller, and wife enjoyed the evening very much. A delightful musical program was rendered by members from both classes. Including the invited guests, there were between ninety and one hundred people present, surpassing anything of this nature in the history of the school.

We bid the Seniors Godspeed in their conquest of knowledge, and hope we can climb as far as they on the ladder of "Success." May our class unite every force for our final combat and carry the colors of "Green and White" to victory in '29.

The activities of the class have not altogether been centered along social lines, but have found expression in the different literary societies. In the athletic field and court the boys won the class tournament and the girls tied for second place. The regular college Varsity team was made up largely of Juniors. The class has been represented in every school activity this year, and we believe we have given our loyal support to the school, Annual, and faculty.

PICTURES IN THE FIRE

Have you not sat on a long Winter's evening
When the flames did leap and blow,
And have you not watched on that same Winter's evening
Till the coals did glimmer and glow?

What picture was there in those coals for you,
Or in those embers red?
Did you see a goal you are striving for,
Or to which you are being led?

Did you see a world stretched out before,
With a place for you to fill?
And did it inspire you with a wish
To make your task ideal?

Let us, then, be not forever dreamers,
But doers with all our might,
That we may bear our old school's colors
To a great and noble height.

C. T. MILLER
HEAD COACH

Coach Miller is a graduate of Emory and Henry, where he learned the tactics of gridiron playing. He is also a graduate of Hiwassee, and we believe he has fulfilled one of his high ambitions by coming back to his old Alma Mater and establishing a fighting aggregation on the football field and hardwood floor. Miller's tutored eleven did not show such a "rep" in scoring, but never a game was played that did not find eleven men fighting like true Panthers until the last whistle blew. Many have paid tribute to Miller's coaching in saying that they never saw a cleaner bunch of athletics. We feel that no higher tribute can be paid to any coach, and Miller deserves all the praise.

PRETTY FAWN

FOOTBALL MEN

BARNES ("PROF.") CROCKETT, CAPTAIN, QUARTERBACK

"Prof." is the best field general Hiwassee has ever had. He possessed the old Hiwassee spirit, and helped by ready and consistent playing all through the season. He was a mainstay in the offense and defense machine. "Prof." is a four-year letter man, with two captain stars. Too much credit cannot be given him, for he captained the team with true Panther spirit and courage.

STEWART ("BULL") WIDENER, FULLBACK

Widener came to us with a football record from William King. He was an aggressive player, carrying a punch that could not be stopped and which kept him ever before the eyes of the public. Here's hoping he is back next year and will bring the H. C. spirit back so strong that he will again be elected the best football player.

JAMES ("LIPPY") TAYLOR, HALFBACK

"Lippy," playing his second year at H. C., held up his brilliant record previously established at Hiwassee. Taylor had uncanny ability for receiving passes and running end runs. This, with his ability to sift through the opposing team's interference, made him a valuable man in Coach Miller's machine.

JACK ("JACK") SHUGART, HALFBACK

"Jack" has finished playing two years of real football for Hiwassee. He was a hard fighter, and made a record for himself on the old gridiron. "Jack" is made of the stuff you can always rely on, and was always ready for the fight. Luck to you next year, "Jack!"

WILLIAM ("BIG BAD BILL") RADER, GUARD

A member of the squad of '26 and this year found "Bill" with a Varsity berth. He showed his ability as a guard, and his weight made him a bulwark in the center of the wall. He was a stone wall on the defense, and could be relied upon to make a hole. Here's hoping "Big Bad Bill" will look big and bad against Hiwassee's opponents in '28.

PRETTY FAWN

DAVID ("SHORTY") WARNER, GUARD

"Shorty" is short of stature, and used this to a great advantage against the opposing team. His spirit of "hit 'em low and never stop hitting" was caught and carried by every member of the team. "Shorty," we hope you can be back next year and can add another stripe to your zebra sweater, for we all know you can.

HENRI ("LONESOME") CASTEEL, TACKLE

This is Henri's second year to make an "H" in football, and he surely showed his ability to break through the opposing team's lines, and was constantly seen throwing the ball toater for losses. We hate to see Henri leave this year, but know he will make a brilliant record anywhere he goes. Stay in there and fight 'em, Henri.

LESTER ("MAGGIE") CARPENTER, GUARD

Carpenter was a substitute in '26, but he showed he was ready for Varsity duty this year, and was a constant threat until he was crippled in the Bluefield game, and was out the rest of the season. He will be back next year, fighting for the grand old institution as only a true Panther can.

MARION ("COWBOY FELLAR") WAGLEY, TACKLE

"Cowboy" came back to us this year to add a stripe to his sweater, and he surely did. Due to his size and weight, he was always in the opposing team's way, and earned for himself a place in the heart of every Hiwasseean. This is "Cowboy's" last year, and we wish him the same success away from here as he had here.

TOM ("ALEC") MAGILL, GUARD

This was the second year "Alec" has made a letter here, and, true to his last year's record, he again found himself a valuable player. We hate to see Tom go, but we are sure that he will meet with success as he has at the old institution. We know he has the old fighting spirit and the old bulldog tenacity that never gives up.

JAMES ("PAT") PATTERSON, END

"Pat," playing his third year as a Panther, again proved himself a charging, dangerous man when it came to getting down on punts, catching passes, and tearing up the enemy's offense plays. His ability to break up passes made Coach Miller play him as defensive half. He is a good football player and a true friend, possessing a fighting spirit that has made him one of the most popular boys at Hiwassee.

PRETTY FAWN

FOOTBALL MEN

EARL ("MOSE") MOSIER, HALFBACK

"Mose" came to us from Chattanooga, and at once showed his ability to toss passes and find holes in the opposing team's defense. He made for himself a great record, and every one is looking for "Mose" back again next year in his old position, tossing passes and running back punts.

NORMON ("PHIZ") HOWARD, TACKLE

"Phiz" came to us from Everett Hi, at Maryville, where he had a record as a hard-fighting tackler. He donned the Maroon and Gold uniform, and not only kept up his good record as a fighting tackler, but he also won the support of the student body, and they are looking for him back next year.

CAMPBELL ("APPIE") HARMON, CAPTAIN-ELECT

"Appie" made his first football letter here this season, and the old spirit shown on the field and the manly way he conducted himself and his natural ability made him their choice for the '28 Football Team. Stay in there and fight 'em, "Appie!" We know you have the true Panther spirit.

SAM TARWATER, END

Sam comes to us from Murphy College. This year marked his first appearance as a Panther, but it was long enough to find out the true caliber of Sam, and he has made for himself a place in the heart of every Hiwasseean. Sam had marked ability in receiving aerial tosses and breaking up interferences. Every one is sure he is good and wants to see him in action again next year.

FRANK ("HUSH PUP") McBRIDE, CENTER

Frank was lacking in previous Varsity experience, but he played like a veteran. He was exceptionally good at placing the ball and holding the center of the line. Frank played a cool, steady game, and could always be relied upon. We hope to have Frank back next year to fill his old position at center.

WALLACE ("WAD") SMITH, TACKLE

"Wad," playing his second year at Hiwassee, was ever a stumblingblock in the path of glory for opposing teams. His consistent, never-die spirit has made him a valuable player, and we are watching for Wallace to better his record in his remaining two years as a member of the Panther aggregation.

WHAT TO LEARN

There are three things in life which we ought to learn. Here they are:

1. Learn to laugh. A good laugh is better than medicine.
2. Learn how to tell a helpful story. A well-told story is as welcome as a sunbeam in a sick-room.
3. Learn to keep your troubles to yourself. The world is too busy to linger over your ills and sorrows.

J. M. GODSEY
SWEETWATER, TENN.

You see a beautiful girl walking down the street: she is, of course, feminine. If she is singular, you become nominative. You walk across to her, changing to the verbal and then becoming dative; if she is not objective, you become plural. You walk home together. Her brother is an indefinite article, and her mother is accusative and becomes imperative. You talk of the future, and she changes to the object. Her father becomes present and you become the past participle.

GRAMMAR NEEDED

Miss Burnett—Bill, "I have went," that's wrong, isn't it?

Bill—Yes, ma'am.

Miss Burnett—Why is it wrong?

Bill—Because you haven't went yet.

The Law locks up the man or woman
Who steals the goose from off
the common.
But leaves the greater villain
loose
Who steals the common from the goose.

Wherever God erects a house of prayer,
The Devil always builds a
chapel there;
And 'twill be found, upon examination,
The latter has the largest congregation.

A FIRST-CLASS PLACE FOR
LADIES AND GENTS
Where Quality Reigns Supreme
R. A. Woodridge, Prop.
MADISONVILLE, TENN.

Here's to the four hinges of friendship,
Swearing, lying, stealing and
drinking.
When you swear, swear by your country;
When you lie, lie for a pretty
woman;
When you steal, steal away
from bad company,
And when you drink, drink
with me.

A rush of air—
Dripping water—
A clash of metal—
And the old man finished his soup.
